

FINCHLEY PROGRESSIVE SYNAGOGUE

Our next rabbi

Warmth over formality, and serious about Jewish life.

Finchley Progressive Synagogue is a warm and inclusive Progressive Jewish community in north London. For more than seventy years we have been a home for Progressive Jewish life, and today we are a congregation of around 500 members, established and much loved. We put warmth before formality, we take Jewish life seriously, and our vision is a simple one: to go on building a kinder and better world together. We are now looking for our next rabbi to help lead us and shape our next chapter.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- A warm, approachable rabbi with a genuine pastoral presence, in both joyful and hard times.
- Someone who helps everyone feel they belong, whatever their background or household.
- Spiritual and intellectual leadership, with worship and teaching that inspire.
- A natural gift for building relationships and connecting across the generations.
- A clear and inspiring vision for our community's future.

WHAT WE OFFER

- A full-time role, open to flexible working, at the heart of a vibrant, well-established community.
- Real support: a committed Administrator and Community Lead, a strong Council and engaged volunteers.
- Genuine care for your wellbeing and work-life balance, with one weekend off each month.
- Support for your development, whether you are established or earlier in your career.
- Competitive remuneration, in line with the Progressive Judaism rabbinic scales.
